

Course Outcomes of M.A Economics (Final)

Indian Economy-I

After completion of the course, learners will be able to

CO1 Have requisite understanding of the basic structure of Indian Economy.

CO2 tudents will comprehensively understand, interpret, compare & contrast, explain the need of planning and know the changes through planning that led to evolution of Indian economy.

CO3 Analyze the reasons behind income inequality, regional imbalance, inadequate finance etc.

CO4 Interpret and justify of the growth rate of the economy, fiscal deficit and contribution of different sectors will become easy.

CO5 know the development process in India after independence

CO6 understand the problems and measures in their contextual perspective

CO7 identify and analyse current issues.

CO8 To have knowledge about the issues in Indian Economy like planning, poverty, unemployment etc.

CO9 To know about framework of policy making for the development of Indian economy.

CO10 To know about relationship between monetary policy, fiscal policy and economic development.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE-I

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 Students would know the country's position regarding international trade, payments and foreign exchange.

CO2 The students would learn the methods regarding improvement in terms of trade, international debt and balance of payments positions.

CO3 Students would know about the policies regarding increase in exports, to deal with international institutions and to maintain relation with other countries. Since globalization and international relations can increase the rate of growth and solve domestic problems like inflation, unemployment and value of currency etc.

CO4 Have a good conceptual understanding of the key concepts and practical applications of both international trade and international finance.

CO5 Outline the development trade theory historically, differentiating standard classical and orthodox trade theories.

CO6 Analyse the links between trade, international finance, economic growth and globalisation, with a particular emphasis on the experiences of developing countries.

CO7 Have a good conceptual understanding of the key concepts and practical applications of both international trade and international finance.

PUBLIC FINANCE-I

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 The students would learn of the features of the federal structure and financial relationship among them.

CO2 The course would develop the analytical ability of students to distinguish between beneficial and detrimental effects of a government policy and their effect on macroeconomic framework of an economy.

CO3 It will help students to critically analyse the fiscal reforms and policy choices of the government in developed and developing countries.

CO4 Be able to understand the core principles of efficiency and welfare distribution and their application to problems in public economics.

CO5 To understand about the taxation system, public expenditure and its related various policies and concepts.

CO6 Know the major areas of application of public economics, how market failures arise, and understand the key tools used in the remedy of market failure.

CO7 Utilize the detailed skills and techniques to address and facilitate public economic policy, such as mechanism design schemes and multiple tariff structures.

CO8 Understand the social objectives of public policy and the role of public economics in various countries.

CO9 Understand the possible burden, benefits and distribution of various types of taxes among various classes of people, know the general trend and impact on general welfare and arouse them to suggest good and bad tax system.

AGRICULTURE ECONOMICS-I

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 Course provides knowledge agricultural background , farm and agro business activities, agri finance and management

CO2 It introduces learner applied part of economics instead theoretical, which deals with allocation of land under various crops, specialization, diversification and other policy amplifications..

CO3 Course offer relevant production and various techniques to understand agri production, cost benefit analysis and enhance learner to make frontier-production function at least cost.

CO4 Understand limited resources available in the economy. Realize the need to exploit and utilize through development and improvement of production techniques.

CO5 Make them aware of the availability of rich natural endowments to achieve sustainable agricultural development. With this knowledge they can challenge the problems of unemployment, inequality, shortage of food productions, poverty, and be useful to compete advanced agricultural economics..

CO6 Gain knowledge of the causes of regional variations in productivity and production, social and economic inequality, size of land holdings and lack of quality inputs etc. and suggest appropriate measures for the whole economy.

.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTION AND MARKETS-I

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 Students would have knowledge regarding money market, capital market, stock exchange i.e. Indian Financial System which is the backbone of the country.

CO2 To familiar students about the relationship between financial development and economic development.

CO3 To impart knowledge to students about controller of financial system, e.g. RBI, SEBI, IRDA and TERI

CO4 Identify the organization and management of Indian Stock market

CO5 Understand the various theories related to interest rate determination of financial markets.

CO6 Identify the role of finance in the operation of an economy.

CO7 Effectively narrate the kinds and components of money with its regulatory system, be aware of the functions, objectives and limitations of commercial banks.

CO8 Identify the existence and development of non-banking financial institutions, know the important role of Mutual funds, LIC, investment companies etc., utilize and effectively participate in the development process.

CO9 Demonstrate the role and significance of foreign exchange rate and its markets with its impact on various sectors in the economy.

Indian Economy-II

After completion of the course, learners will be able to

CO1 To have knowledge about the issues in Indian Economy like planning, poverty, unemployment etc.

CO2 To know about relationship between monetary policy, fiscal policy and economic development.

CO3 To know about framework of policy making for the development of Indian economy

CO4 To know about the preparation of budgeting and its utilization for Indian economy.

CO5 know the industrialization process and industrial policy of India after independence.

CO6 understand the problems and measures in context of public sector enterprises and their performance.

CO7 identify and analyse current issues related to the Indian economy.

CO8 To have knowledge about the FEMA, BOP and MNCs in India.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE-II

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 Students would know the country's position regarding international trade, payments and foreign exchange.

CO2 The students would learn the methods regarding improvement in terms of trade, international debt and balance of payments positions.

CO3 Students would know about the policies regarding increase in exports, to deal with international institutions and to maintain relation with other countries. Since globalization and international relations can increase the rate of growth and solve domestic problems like inflation, unemployment and value of currency etc.

CO4 Have a good conceptual understanding of the key concepts and practical applications of both international trade and international finance.

CO5 Be aware of the changes in the composition as well as direction of foreign trade after international trade and know the causes and effects of deficits in the balance of payments, measures adopted to correct the deficits and identify the need for having trade reforms.

CO6 to understand and analyse about the various international organisations like WTO, GATT, SAARC etc.

CO7 Have a good conceptual understanding of the Instrument of export promotion and recent import and export policies and agenda for future.

PUBLIC FINANCE-II

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 The students would learn of the features of the federal structure and financial relationship among them.

CO2 The course would develop the analytical ability of students to distinguish between beneficial and detrimental effects of a government policy and their effect on the macroeconomic framework of an economy.

CO3 It will help students to critically analyse the fiscal reforms and policy choices of the government in developed and developing countries.

CO4 Be able to understand the center-state financial relationship of India and its related issues.

CO5 To analyse the trends of public expenditure of Indian govt. and also of state government.

CO6 To understand about the Instruments and transmission mechanisms; fiscal policy for stabilization and govt. utilize them for various problem solution.

CO7 Be able to analyse the various concepts of budgetary deficits; fiscal deficit in India: extent, trend and, implication.

AGRICULTURE ECONOMICS-II

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 Course provides knowledge agricultural background, farm and agro business activities, agri finance and management

CO2 It introduces learner applied part of economics instead theoretical, which deals with allocation of land under various crops, specialization, diversification and other policy amplifications...

CO3 Course offer relevant production and various techniques to understand agri production, cost benefit analysis and enhance learner to make frontier-production function at least cost.

CO4 To understand about the background of land reform system in India and its various issues.

CO5 Make them aware of the availability of rich natural endowments to achieve agricultural development through Green revolution.

CO6 Gain knowledge of the causes of Green Revolution in India and its various impacts.

CO7 Identify the sources and features of agricultural credit, marketing, price policy of Indian agriculture system.

CO8 understand and analyse the various issues and forms of public and private investment in agriculture sector.

.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTION AND MARKETS-II

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

CO1 Course work provides a path to follow research in general area of economics and business.

CO2 To familiar students about the relationship between financial development and economic development.

CO3 Students would gain understanding of primarily about estimation and hypothesis testing. What is different and generally much more interesting and useful is that parameter being estimated and tested are not just means and variances but relationship between variables, which is much of economics and other social sciences

CO4 To familiarise the students to study economics with an applied approach

CO5 Explain the broad features of Indian financial institutions with its apex banks' objectives and purview. Also understand the instruments to control credit in the country.

CO6 Identify the role of finance in the operation of an economy Effectively narrate the kinds and components of money with its regulatory system, be aware of the functions, objectives and limitations of commercial banks.

CO7 To understand about the various forms of financial markets like: Call money market, Treasury bill market, Commercial bill market including commercial ECN and certificate of deposits.

CO8 gain theoretical and practical knowledge about derivative market and its working.

CO9 To understand the theory of optimum currency areas - Euro-dollar and Euro-Currency markets – Their development role at international level.

