

Programme Specific Outcomes of M.A.(ECONOMICS)

PSO 1- Students will be able to apply microeconomic principles and models to define and address market failures and related issues.

PSO 2 Identify the causes of changes in macroeconomic variables with time and explain the mechanisms through which they operate in the economy.

PSO 3 Develop fundamental mathematical skills which enable them to model economic questions as mathematical problems.

PSO 4 Most effective use of Descriptive statistics, inferential statistics to solve management problems quantitatively.

PSO 5 Acquire the basic understanding of models of growth and development and apply the acquired skill in conducting research related to development issues.

PSO 6 Students will be able to understand the issues related to Indian economy and analyzing the steps taken by the government to overcome these problems and develop ideas for further improvement.

PSO 7 Understanding all possible sources of both Public and private finance and their usage to correct market failure and strategic public expenditure for various programmes.

PSO 8 students will be able to identify the opportunities in flourishing sectors like horticulture, fishing and floriculture and forestry and realize the need to exploit and utilize these opportunities through development and improvement of production techniques.

PSO 9 students will be able to understand the importance of international trade theories and their usage for the benefits of the trading countries. They will be able to recognize how the working of balance of payment disequilibrium, foreign trade policy, exchange rate policy, Multilateral agreements and position of the economy in international organizations affect the economy.

PSO 10 Students will be able to demonstrate the functioning of various financial institutions and their impact on the economy. They will be effectively able to narrate the various financial instruments provided by these institutions for the effective mobilizing and channelizing of the resources for increasing investments in the economy.

PSO11 Students will be able to exhibit basic knowledge of each of the functional areas of business – accounting, management, marketing, economics, and finance and emphasizing their importance in an organization and describing their interrelationship in the organization's attempt to achieve its objectives.

PSO12 Discover the impact of changing communication methods on society. They will be able to develop knowledge, skills, and judgement around human communication that facilitate their ability to work collaboratively with others.